EPHESIANS 2:1-3

And you He made alive, who were dead in trespasses and sins, in which you once walked according to the course of this world, according to the prince of the power of the air, the spirit who now works in the sons of disobedience, among whom also we all once conducted ourselves in the lusts of our flesh, fulfilling the desires of the flesh and of the mind, and were by nature children of wrath, just as the others.

KRISTINA ANN SHIDDELL

As someone who has been greatly impacted by the pursuit of knowledge in light of the Gospel, my hope is to see students who engage the Lord with their mind as much as their hearts. I believe this can happen in any subject as young adults begin to understand what it means to commit all learning and the pursuit of truth to the one who has created all things. My prayer is that students would be well equipped to stand firm in their faith as they strive for academic excellence. My giftings, passions, training, and education make me a strong candidate to teach subjects of bible, theology, literature, and logic - however I would be excited and willing to learn and teach other subjects as well. My hope is to find a position in the Kansas City area. You can reach me at (913) 636-7559 or KSHIDDELL@GMAIL.COM for a cover letter and resume. 9/17

I am seeking to teach humanities, rhetoric, or languages at the 7-12th grade level. I have a deep love of students and the Christian classical approach to learning. I am committed to helping students learn how to be lovers of God and lovers of his children through a love of truth, goodness, and beauty. I graduated college in May 2014 with a degree in English Literature, and since Fall 2014, I have been teaching 9th grade history and literature, 11th grade rhetoric, and senior thesis at Greyfriars Classical Academy in Charlotte, NC. I will be graduating in May 2018 with an M.A. in Bible and an M.A. in Theology from Reformed Theological Seminary, Charlotte. After graduating, I am looking to move from Charlotte into a full-time teaching position at a classical Christian school. For a cover letter and resume, email me at CARTERKIN3@GMAIL.COM or call me at (423) 285-9099. 9/17

MARIANA MARTINS MARTINS CORRÊA

I am a 30 years old single lady with strong Christian values. My first bachelor degree was in Nutrition, but when I finished it, I felt God directing me to education. In 2011 I was approved into the best university of Latin America and began to study education, course that took me five years to complete. In December, 2016 I got my bachelor in Education. Since 2014 I have been working here in my country as teaching assistant in English speaking schools. My native language is Portuguese, but I have a great love for the English language. I have studied it here in Brazil for some years and I developed more when I went to live in USA (I was an Au Pair from 2012 to 2013). I have always loved Christian education. I strongly believe pupils must learn to love God with all their understanding. Once, searching about it at the internet I came across a Classical Christian Education website. I realized that's what I was looking for. After that, I have read the suggested books, which made me understand more about it. I love teaching and I do feel it as God's calling for me. I need His help to shape kids minds. This is really serious. It makes me sad that, in Brazil, there are no Classical Christian Schools and I cannot afford opening one, so I would like to go abroad to work with this. Also, my country is nowadays a bad place to live. Problems with political corruption, violence and low appreciation of education make me want to pursue a better life in another country. For cover letter and resume, email me at MARIANA.MARTINS.CORREA@GMAIL.COM. 9/17

ANDREW RHETT TALBERT

I am writing in application for a position at a classical Christian school, having particular interest in posts for theology and New Testament Greek. With you, I share a passion for training young minds with a classical and Christian education. Currently, I have just completed a three-year contract as a lecturer in theology at the Universitas Pelita Harapan (Indonesia) with courses including New Testament Greek, biblical studies and pedagogy, and Reformed theology, with further responsibilities in student recruitment, curriculum development, advising, and speaking engagements. As a learner-centered educator I make primary use of lecturing and guided discussions of a topic or text, as these best facilitate student inquiry. Hermeneutics constitute the framework of my teaching, with a broader goal of aiding students to recognize their cognitive presuppositions and how these lead them to the truth. As to teaching biblical studies specifically, my aim is to help students transition from reading Scripture as a discrete book to reading the world from a biblical perspective. Working in a culture (Indonesia) where repetition is generally the goal of education, I have had to develop my courses with introductory emphases on dialectic and how to read texts well before introducing them to the complexities of Christian theology. For a resume and cover letter, please email me at DR.ANDREW TALBERT@GMAIL.COM. 9/17

MICHAEL JAMES MCKENNA

Mike McKenna is an experienced headmaster with 30 years successful involvement in Christian and classical Christian education/administration.

He has been instrumental in designing an internationally recognize classical teacher-training program, lead the work of revising board governance to adopt more effective means of governance, and developed a foreign educational travel model (the "Grand Tour") that has been duplicated by classical Christian schools across the nation. Mike is seeking to serve in a classical school that desires to develop a counter-cultural faculty and student-body who desire to live in light of the gospel. Please email MJMCKENNA1961@GMAIL.COM for CV and resume. 9/17

MATTHEW ROSS MILLER

Education exists to train a child of God to love the true, the good, and the beautiful as they are found in Jesus Christ our Lord. Therefore, my mission as a teacher is to mold the affections of my students so that they love Christ, are found faithful to Him, and learn to think His thoughts after Him. I hold an M.Div. from The Southern Baptist Theological Seminary and am currently working on a Ph.D. in Old Testament at the same institution. I am entering my fourth year of teaching. In my teaching experience, I have taught a variety of subjects, including history, math, Latin, Bible, and Greek. I have taught grades 3-8. In addition, I have some experience teaching in the higher education context. My strong subjects are classical languages, Bible/theology, and history. I have consistently taught these subjects with a high level of student comprehension. In addition to my academic pursuits, I am working toward ordination in the Anglican Church. For a resume and cover letter, email MATTHEW.R.MILLER85@GMAIL.COM. 9/17

ROSELLA PERRONE

I am a broadly experienced secondary and college level educator of Italian and Spanish languages, as well as English language and literature teacher and guide for Western European cultural studies, history, and literature. I have developed Italian and Spanish studies curricula that include literature, drama, and music and have approached language history studies from a cultural, as well as a lingual view point. I have organized and maintain language clubs. Presently I am the head of the "Opera Club" and have organized many successful events. In addition, I have provided private tutoring and via respected companies—for students in subjects that include English as a second language, English language arts, Italian, Spanish, history and social studies and test preparation. 9/17

MPUMELELO MICHELE RAY

I am looking to make a difference. Our world has left my heart heavy. As Christian, I feel that now is the time to focus at the beginning with our children about the importance of Jesus and the Bible. Children are sponges and being there at the beginning will help build character for them and a foundation. Proverbs 22 vs. 6 KJV says Train up a child in the way he should go: and when he is old, he will not depart from it. That is how I feel if we give them the right foundation we are setting them up for success no matter what challenges they may face. I am looking for a teaching positon as a K-6 General Classroom teacher. Please email me at MMRAY28@OUTLOOK.COM for my resume and cover letter. 9/17

JOSH SKINNER

I am seeking an opportunity to share my love of theology, literature, philosophy, and history with children and young adults in a classical, Christian setting. I have 15 years of experience working with youth and children in a variety of ministerial contexts. I have a BA in English-Literature and a ThB in historical theology, and I am currently completing an MA in English Literature (Spring 2018). I love to learn as much or more than I love to teach, so I am constantly seeking opportunities to grow in my own knowledge as well as my teaching craft. Contact at 301 Willow St., Ector, TX 75439, (903) 422-2871, HTTPS://TAMUC.ACADEMIA.EDU/JOSH SKINNER/CURRICULUMVITAE or JOSHRSKINNER@GMAIL.COM. 9/17

GWENDOLYN SHELDON

Since finishing my Ph.D. in Medieval Studies, I have taught high school Latin, as well as courses in Latin, history, and literature to undergraduates at a number of institutions. I also have experience in tutoring students in Latin and essay writing and in teaching Sunday School to elementary school pupils. In teaching Latin, I concentrate on making sure that the students understand English grammar, because their lack of awareness of how they construct sentences in English is generally their greatest stumbling block. In teaching history or literature from a particular historical period, since few of the students know much about the historical period in question, I view it as my role to introduce them to this unfamiliar period and in so doing, to lead them to consider various philosophical questions and viewpoints that had not previously occurred to them, to examine what factors inevitably shape societies and what questions are always of concern to human beings, to synthesize multiple sources of information, and to express their reasoning clearly. Email me at sheldongwendolyn@gmail.com for my CV and resume. 9/17

TANTELY ANDRIAMANANJARA RAKOTOARISOA

There used to be a period in human history where Christian men and women constituted the majority of intellectuals. I long for a golden age of Christian thinking again, to the glory of our Lord. Obviously, christian education plays a central role for the edification of the Church and for the bettering of our society, as we are the salt of the earth. However, there are many inconsistencies between a conservative protestant education and the curriculum in North America. I am particularly interested in mathematics and logic but I started deepening my knowledge of philosophy. I have three masters in mathematics from 3 different countries, one in French, and two in English. I have taught maths at the grade 7 and 8 levels and I enjoyed it greatly. I like interacting with students and challenging them with nice maths problem. I believe this would enhance their critical thinking skills. Of course, as a reformed believer, I love theology. My long life goal is to master the original languages of the Bible, Latin and German, Lord willing. I subscribe to the Westminster Standards of 1647. Please email TANTELYANDRIAMANANJARA@GMAIL.COM for my cover letter and resume. 9/17 presently to teach in the USA. I am a very experienced administrator. Between USA Youth Ministry, Associate Pastor and Pastor, along with Theological Education and ESL administration in Brazil and Correctional Chaplain in Texas, I have almost 20 years experience working with volunteers and coordinating subordinates. I have established a reputation as a transformational leader driven by the challenge of equipping students for Christ-anchored lives and successful ministry, working with families in crisis, and helping guide individuals and families through the crisis ministry and loss. My expertise encompasses curriculum development; volunteer coordination; teambuilding; walking with patient and family through critical illness, hospitalization, and loss; individual and group teaching and counseling; and working with persons from all religious traditions. In conclusion, transferable skills and experiences summarized above blended into successful ministry have prepared me to adapt quickly as an administrator or head of school. MICHAEL HAROLD BURT

Disclaimer: I do not have a graduate degree, nor do I have a Teaching Licensure. If you've made it past my disclaimer, we're off to a great start! I am a driven, thoughtful individual with, I believe, the merit and ability to teach, but not the credential. I'm just looking for someone to give me a chance -- and I'm more than willing to take graduate coursework online while teaching. As for experience, I have 6 months of professional experience teaching in South Korea: I taught English in the Human Resource Development center for KEPCO KPS, conducting intensive courses to engineers in preparation for overseas work placements. Additionally, I have led many Bible studies and discipleship groups over the years. I've also independently published scholarship on George MacDonald's Phantastes (HTTP://DIGITALCOMMONS.SNC.EDU/NORTHWIND/VOL35/ISS1/31/). I believe in a classical education; I believe that Morality, which was often central to education in the past, should remain central in modern educational curricula; I believe that understanding the development of the Western tradition is crucial for intelligent and articulate living in the modern West; and I believe that the goal of education ought to be the holistic development of the individual, intellectually, morally, physically, and spiritually. If you think I may be a good fit for your institution, please don't hesitate to contact me. I'd love to talk more! YOU CAN EMAIL ME AT MIKEHBURT@GMAIL.COM. 10/17

JOSHUA LEE HARRIS

I am currently a candidate in the conjoint Philosophy PhD Program run by the Toronto Institute for Christian Studies and the Vrije Universiteit Amsterdam. I am also Adjunct Professor of Philosophy at Providence College in Providence, RI, and the Global News Editor for Christian Courier (a print and online publication associated with the Christian Reformed Church in Canada). I have significant experience teaching philosophy, theology, history and literature at both high school and university levels, and my written work has appeared in many highly respected academic publications. Most of all, I am enthusiastic about the classical Christian education movement in North America and beyond, and would count it as a privilege to shape students' hearts and minds in an ACCS institution. I am very eager indeed to talk about how I might fit in an ACCS institution, so please feel free to contact me anytime at JHARRI11@PROVIDENCE.EDU. 11/17

JAMES RICHARD FROHLICH

Over the last several years I have come to appreciate the value of the classical model of education. I am looking for a position in Bible/theology. I am also able to teach Greek, Hebrew, and elementary Latin. In January 2018 I will confer with the degree of Ph.D. in Biblical Studies (concentrating in Old Testament) from Dallas Theological Seminary. For CV and Resume, please email me at FROHLICHJAMES@GMAIL.COM. 11/17

BILLINGS, MT

The ACCS website states that, "If the Lord reveals the need to you, He may be calling you to start a school." After about a year of reflection, contemplation, study, prayer, research, and more prayer, the time has come for me to heed this call, to move forward, and to contact the ACCS. I seek the establishment of a Classical Christian school in Billings, MT. Our children deserve the opportunity to attain a Classical Christian education. To this end they need someone to commence the beginning; they need advocates. The schools they currently attend revolve around test-taking, and predominantly focus on the production of college- and career-ready students. Our children deserve so much more. I hope that Billings has a group of parents who, themselves, have been inspired with the goodness and beauty of Classical education, and believe that our community's youth would flourish should such a school be made available. Classical Christian Education in Missions in Africa as a Mission Outreach—Really? How? And Why?

The Rafiki Foundation has established 10 classical schools across the continent of Africa. It is our hope that God will use us to bring Christian Classical education to a continent whose educational system is suffering.

We are looking for educators who can work as missionaries and can commit to a minimum of two years on the field. An ideal candidate will have a Bachelor's degree in their select subject, a love for teaching, a heart for missions, and the adaptability that mission's work requires. The candidate should be a seasoned Christian who seeks to grow in knowledge, wisdom, and grace while also encouraging this growth in others.

Rafiki has these opportunities for classical educators:

Headmasters (4 openings)

Teachers (20 openings)

Dean of the Rafiki Institute of Classical Education (teacher training)– 5 openings

Music educators: 10 openings

Art educators: 10 openings

Persons interested would have to assent to our statement of belief, our mission philosophy, and raise financial support. We are praying that God will use Rafiki to bring classical Christian education to all of Africa through our model schools. Perhaps God might give you or someone you know the opportunity to help Africans know God and raise their standard of living through classical Christian education. Please visit our website at www.rafikifoundation.org to learn more or contact Executive Director Karen Elliott at karene@rafikifoundation.org or (352) 483-9131. 11/17

Due to our continued growth, Cahaya Bangsa Classical School (CBCS) in Indonesia has some openings for the 2016–17 SY as follows: one expat teacher for language arts/rhetoric in high school and one expat teacher for language arts/rhetoric in elementary school. The qualifications of the teacher are: graduated from English literature or linguistic (bachelor's degree or higher) or certified English teacher with in TEFL, TESOL, or CELTA certificate; 25–50 years old; preferably with at least five years of experience; mature Christian; passport valid for a minimum of two years more; and a love of learning. Experiences in coaching students for thesis writing and defense will be advantageous. Cahaya Bangsa Classical School, a K–12 English-speaking school with 700 Indonesian students and a majority of local teachers, is located in Bandung, Indonesia. Applicants must have commitment to Christian classical education, a heart of missions, ability to adjust to different cultures, and strong personal references (working commitment at least two years). For more information, contact Agnes Tahar, AGNES@CAHAYABANGSA.ORG or HRD@CAHAYABANGSA.ORG. 5/17

VERITAS LEARNING CENTER

is looking for two teachers to teach English, Math, History, Science and the Humanities in Vietnam. We have about 50 children K-12 and have been running since Feb 2016. As a new Classical Christian

School in an Asian and socialist setting, every day will be exciting and challenging. We can provide an adequate salary and accommodation for you to live and serve in Vietnam. If you are interested to find out more, please email me, Bruce Flanagan, at BRUCE@VERITASCENTERVN.COM. 11/17

in Newmarket, Ontario, Canada, is looking for experienced teachers for our young school. We have a need for 2nd grade, starting as early as January. We will also have an opening for a 9th grade humanities teacher (with leadership potential) as we break ground for a high school in one of the handful of classical Christian high schools in Canada. We would love to hear from experienced applicants who have the potential to work and live in Canada and have a passion for shaping hearts and minds toward Christ. Please submit letters of interest and resumes to Monica Whatley at MWHATLEY@INNOVAACADEMY.CA. 11/17
