

Standards for Evaluating Prospective Students and Families

I. Spiritual Considerations

- A. Personal Christian commitment of parents and student and involvement in a local church
- B. Willingness of parents and student to be supportive of the school's Christian philosophy of education
- C. Willingness of parents and student to support the administration and faculty in carrying out the goals and programs of the school
- D. Willingness of parents and student to practice biblical communication when resolving conflicts and otherwise interacting with others in the community

II. Behavioral Considerations

- A. History of acceptable citizenship in previous school experience
- B. Agreement of parents and student to abide by the behavior standards established by the school
- C. Willingness of parents to read required materials
- D. Understanding of school's discipline philosophies and willingness of parents to embrace those policies in the home

III. Academic Considerations

- A. Documented record of acceptable grades in previous school experience
- B. Acceptable scores on entrance tests
- C. Academic preparedness for requested grade level

IV. Personal Considerations

- A. Student's special interests, talents, and skills
- B. Student's level of intellectual curiosity

Providence Classical School practices a biblical philosophy of admissions, not discriminating on the basis of race, color, or national and ethnic origin in the administration of its policies, admissions, scholarships, and other school-directed programs.

Admissions Timeline

December 19, 2019	Sibling applications due (Testing and supporting documents due February 1, 2020)  Qualified siblings of PCS students in good standing receive priority consideration when their applications and required forms are received by the due dates.
January 31, 2020	Re-enrollment Due for Current Families
February 1, 2020	New family applications due  Priority consideration is given to families who submit applications on or before February 1, 2020
After February 1, 2020	Applications will be considered on a rolling basis as space allows.
February 28, 2020	Financial Aid applications due  Applications received after this date will only be considered for limited remaining financial aid funds.
March 31, 2020	Deadline for communicating Financial Aid and Admissions priority decisions to families who met the initial deadlines.